

Railroad Commission Gives Dothan No Chance To Be Heard

ABBEVILLE-BAINBRIDGE TRAIN WILL BE DISCONTINUED

Secretary Kennedy Finally Admits Granting Permission For Discontinuation of Train.

In Reply to Chamber of Commerce Telegram Denies Issuance of Permission.

Although Secretary S. P. Kennedy of the Alabama Railroad Commission, wrote the Chamber of Commerce of Dothan last night that no permission had been granted the Atlantic Coast Line to discontinue the Abbeville-Bainbridge trains in this state, a telegram received this morning admits that the statements made in his letter are erroneous, and that such permission has been granted. And, he it remembered that this permitting of two important trains to Dothan to be withdrawn was without the Dothan people having been given a shadow of a chance to be heard.

"Almost Incredible."
Dothan business men are indignant at the treatment accorded them by the commission. Ordinary interest in the welfare of nearly 45,000 people served by these trains, in the opinion of many, would require a hearing and the listening to by the commission of any objections that the people affected might feel inclined to make.

Many People Hit.
Every Dothan business man is affected by the annulment of the two trains in question, and Dothan has been a great revenue producer for the Atlantic Coast Line, and it is believed by many shippers that were the matter taken up with the executive heads of the company, they would not attempt to justify the action of subordinates, particularly when such action was taken in the dark, and the people at interest given no opportunity to be heard.

Coast Line's Attitude.
Although professing great friendship for Dothan, the Atlantic Coast Line not only charges the high tariff rates, but in almost innumerable cases flagrant cases of overcharges are in evidence. Dothan people are long suffering as a rule, but the talk on the street today does not portend for a much longer standing for the attitude of this company.

Meeting Today.
At 3:00 o'clock this afternoon the committee of the Chamber of Commerce met with a view of taking up the rate situation, and at 4 o'clock a general meeting is called to discuss what is looked upon as an unwarranted action in taking off the Bainbridge train without Dothan having been heard from.

AUTO PARTY STOPS HERE

Colorado Motorists Praise Good Roads in Alabama—Party Going to Jacksonville, Fla.

After innumerable hardships encountered on account of bad roads in Mississippi, H. T. Bowden, editor of The Trinidad Advertiser of Trinidad, Colorado, and Mrs. Bowden, and Henry E. Harper, a locomotive engineer, and Mrs. Harper, of the same place, reached Dothan today in an automobile. They stopped only a short while in this city.

The motorists left Trinidad September 29, and since that time have been automobiling through the country, en route to Jacksonville, Fla., where they will spend a few days before returning by rail.

Mr. Bowden found the cotton situation in the South distressing, but he also discussed troubles in his section where a miners strike has been in progress for some time.

That the highways of Alabama are as good as those in any state through which they passed, was admitted by Mr. Bowden. Among other towns, the party stopped at Amarillo, Texas, San Antonio, Texas, Houston, Texas, New Orleans, La., Hattiesburg, Miss., and Dothan.

BRAVES TAKE FOURTH GAME

The Boston Braves today took the fourth game from the Philadelphia Athletics in the World's Championship Series at Fenway Park in Boston. There is no doubt but what the Athletics, last year's champions, were outclassed at every point of the game by the Braves.

Philadelphia used two pitchers, Penock relieving Shawkey in the sixth. Rudolph, hero of the first day's game, and Gowdy, worked for the Braves. The attendance was about 30,000.

The game was shown at R. F. Valentino's store in detail, a telegraph instrument having been placed in the store. The plays were called and then flashed on the large board by lights. Several hundred fans gathered in Foster street to witness the game.

Boston, Oct. 13.—35,000 fans shivered beneath furs and overcoats at the fourth world series game today in a raw cold wind. Batteries today were: Philadelphia, Shawkey and Schang; Boston, Rudolph and Gowdy.

OUR OPPORTUNITY.

From the Fra.

Napoleon said that a foreign war was the recipe for peace at home.

European war has proved a panacea for our political ills.

Washington and Wall Street are now sleeping in twin beds and the White House has acknowledged in very tangible form that Wall Street is not the detestable thing that the saffron journals and the vaudeville stage have proclaimed.

Aside from the fact that the financial necessities of the cotton growers are going to be protected by big business, comes the very hopeful information that New England cotton manufacturers have increased their spindles by twenty-five thousand.

The factories of France, Germany and Austria are closed, but manufacturing in England will continue in degree.

Great Britain is the best foreign customer that the United States has. Great Britain buys from us every year goods to the extent of five hundred million dollars. We buy back from Great Britain goods to the extent of two hundred million dollars.

This means a balance in our favor of about three hundred million dollars.

England does not produce enough food to take care of her people, and for the next year England will make bigger demands on us for food products than ever before, but we will purchase from Great Britain and from the continental countries less than we ever have in the past, simply because these countries will have nothing to sell. Everything they produce will be consumed or destroyed, and this will mean for us a larger trade-balance in our favor than we have ever known.

We have heard a good deal of discussion about our not being able to get ships to transport our products to South America and Europe. The fact has been overlooked, however, that South America has a subsidized fleet which is prepared to run between North American ports and those of South America. These ships will take care of the South American trade, and already ships from the Great Lakes are being sent to Atlantic ports, and this will mean increased prosperity for the railroads of the United States.

The wheat crop of the United States for 1914 is over nine hundred million bushels, and this will be sold at one dollar a bushel. The distribution of this vast amount of money throughout the agricultural districts of America will mean that the mail-order business will prosper as they never have before, and that manufacturers of agricultural implements, while their export business slaps off, yet the trade at home shapes will not be fashionable this winter.

American securities in the way of bonds, stocks and mortgages to the extent of about one billion dollars.

These securities will be offered back to us at a very much decreased price because Europe will certainly need the money.

In fact, one reason why the Stock Exchanges have closed is on account of the anticipation that American stocks held by Europeans will be dumped on the market, and certainly it is that our prosperity will enable us to absorb these securities, thus paying off our debts at a good, big cash discount.

We are a producing people. Our wealth was not gotten by conquest, exploitation or annexation. We have plowed it out of the prairies, cut it out of the forests, mined it out of the mountains.

In America there are no war-torn lands. We have not even militant suffragettes. The armed bully has no footing here. We are farmers, manufacturers, transporters, miners, merchants, and when all Europe is working debility and disease, fighting, destroying and all the time consuming, this is our opportunity! And we are going to improve it.

We are a united people, and today we think more of President Wilson and the administration than ever before.

Certainly good things are coming our way. It only remains for us to stand by each other, keep our tempers, keep our health, and not allow our nerves to get on the outside of our clothes.

Wise people have always prospered at the expense of the fighting fools. And it is right and proper that they should prosper.

This is our opportunity and we are going to improve it.

LARRY M'LUKE SAYS

From the Cincinnati Enquirer.

One trouble with the world is that out of every 100 weddings there are only about 20 real marriages.

When the first baby is born father takes a week off so as to be sure and be at home when the great event occurs. But when the fourth baby comes along, they have to telephone all over town to locate father and break the good news.
